The young and the old enjoy hearing and reading stories. Interesting stories particularly appeal to everyone. Here are some important points that can help us make a story interesting and impressive:

The story should have a clear and well planned plot. 1.

2. The events should follow a natural order.

3. It should be in simple English.

Dialogues should be impressive and worded as naturally as possible. 4.

5. It should always be in the past tense.

6. There should be no grammatical mistakes.

It should have some suspense for the reader, to make the story have a strong grip. 7. "Practice makes a man perfect" holds good in the case of story writing too.

Developing a story from a given outline is easier than writing one on a heading or a moral. Whatever the case, the conclusion or the end should be handsomely drawn and moral (if any) should follow in a natural and clear way. Specimen:

Develop the following outline into a readable story:

A farmer has three sons ----- they keep on quartelling ---- father advises again and again but to no effect ----- falls seriously ill ----- sends for the sons ---- asks them to bring a handful of sticks ----- ties them into a bundle ----- asks them to break it turn by turn ----all three sons fail ----- unties the bundle ---- asks them to break single stick ----- they easily break ---- lesson united we stand, divided we fall.

1. A Farmer and His Sons

Once upon a time, there lived a farmer in a village. He had three sons. They always quarrelled with one another. The farmer was much worried (پیشان) about them. He advised them to live in peace (منصوبه بنایا) but all in vain (بیمطور پر) One day he fell seriously (امنی فار اسم) ill. He planned to advise them for the last time (بلا بحيجا). He sent for (بلا بحيجا) his sons. They came at once (فوراً). He asked them to bring a bundle of sticks. When they did so, he ordered them to break the bundle one by one. They tried (کوئش) their best to break it but none (کوئی) could succeed (کامیاب بونا)

At last, the farmer untied (کمول دیا) the bundle and asked each of them to break a stick one by one. Everyone broke his stick quite easily (בנודעט). The farmer then advised them that if they were united (متحد) like the sticks, no one would harm (انقصان بينجانا) them. But they would be ruined if they were divided (الله). This had a very good effect (عام them So they began to live peacefully (امن وسكون سے)

Dear Mother.

April 3, 2022.

Many thanks for your loving letter which I received vesterday. Last Sunday, I, with some of my friends, made a trip to Jallo Park. For this purpose, we also decided to take some eatables with us. So I bought water melons as everyone likes to eat these in this season. All of us ate it with relish. We could not notice that those water melons were rotten. Anyhow, before arriving at hostel, I began to vomit feeling a bit pain in my stomach. The pain was so severe that it was quite unbearable. At first, I took it light but later on, my condition grew worse. My hostel Superintendent called a doctor who said that it was a case of Cholera. He also suggested a few doses of medicine. The doctor said, I would be hale and hearty within a week. Don't worry about me now. You need not come over here.

Please pay my regards to all at home. Yours affectionately.

Dear Friend,

I reached my home quite safe and sound the day before yesterday. I want to say thanks to whole of your family for the hospitality and kindness which you have shown to me. I will not forget the taste of biryani and chicken which you cooked for me one day. Further, your parents also treated me like their own son. I will also remember the trip which you specially arranged for me to the historical places of Lahore. It was due to you that I got a chance to have a deep observation of cultural heritage of our ancestors like Badshahi Mosque, Shahi Qilla etc. Anyhow,

I again thank you for your hospitality.

Please remember me in your prayer.

Examination Hall, City A. B. C. Dec 16, 2022.

Dear Friend,

I was shocked to hear the sad news of your mother's untimely death. I cannot express refeelings of sorrow and grief on this sad occasion. I had a special attachment with her. She loved as her own son. Whenever, I remember her love and affection, tears begin to spring out from eyes spontaneously. She was the model of piety, sagacity and wisdom. Indeed, it is an unbearabless. You and your younger brothers and sisters have lost a sincere and affectionate mother. You father has also lost a faithful and true life-partner.

May God rest her soul in peace! I am with you in this time of trial.

Please convey my sympathies to all of your family members.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Brother,

It is a matter of great concern for me that you have lost your weight by five pounds during the last one month. It appears that there is something wrong with your diet. It is not a good sign good health. You must be conscious of your health and diet. One of your friends has told me to you study that night and get up early in the morning.

Further, you have given up your routine of regular exercise early in the morning. As result, you have become dull and lazy. It is not right to burn the midnight oil and be a book worm. You must take care of your balance diet and do regular exercise. It is better to join a gym.

Hoping that you will pay heed to my advice and do your utmost effort to improve your healt. Yours affectionately, Teacher: Hello Fauzia. You are bit late today.

Yes, Madam, Jam sorry. Fauzia: Well, so what happened? Teacher:

Fauzia: The school-bus was right on schedule. It was about to cross the canal bridge when it came to a halt with a jerk. The tyre had gone flat.

I see. It's none of your fault then! Teacher:

One thing more, Madam, the driver had no Jack with him. He waved to other Fauzia:

vehicles but none of them stopped. Nobody seemed to be willing to oblige at those

Well, what did you do then? You came by another bus. Did you? Teacher:

Fauzia: No, Madam, we left the bus where it was and walked up to school all the way. Well done! You are a brave girl indeed. Now, girls let's get going with our lesson. Teacher:

A dialogue between two students regarding salat 2. Osama:

Well, now I'd like to take rest for a while. I've had my meals, you know. Salman:

Ok, you should take rest while I fix this picture of a landscape up on the wall. Where is the sticky tape?

Osama: Out there in the drawer.

Well, I think this picture needs to be a bit higher up. How do you like it Osama? Salman: Osama:

Lovely! Good, well done. That looks nice up there. Now let's go for prayers to the

Salman: I am going to the marke

No Prayers first. Don't you hear the moezzin's call for prayer? Osama:

Sure, I do, but I am going out. It's very urgent. My motorbike is out at the gate. Salman: Osama:

There is nothing in the world that ought to be more urgent than a prayer. Salman:

I don't really understand it. Art is long and life is short. There is so much to do in the world. There is so much fun games, sports, T.V., cricket, world cups, videos, feature films, fun-fairs, shopping, and so many other things to do. Sorry, I am going.

Osama: Dear me, who am I to hold you back? Dear, as you are to me, I sincerely wish you pray. Prayers give us peace, freshness, balance, courage, hope, goodness in our short life here on the earth and eternal goodness in the life hereafter.

Salman: Oh, I am sick of your sermons, Osama!

See Allah has blessed us with eyes, ears, heart, hands, legs and brain. Salman you see Osama: such a lovely world is there around us. Great gifts they are! Aren't they? We must thank Allah, the Merciful, the Sustainer. As Muslims, we pray and this is how we thank Salman: All right. I fear Allah. I love Him, too. I'll go with you.

3. A dialogue asking one's way.

(Board 2023) 09615003

A: Excuse me troubling you sir, but can you tell me the way to the museum? B:

Certainly, keep straight along this road, take the first turn to the right, and that will bring you to a green square with flagpoles. That is Istanbul Square, cross it, and you'll see one corner of red brick building with a couple of domes. That is the museum.

A: Thank you very much, indeed. B: My pleasure, (A goes on walking and takes the wrong turn. He wanders around a good deal. Tired and upset, he talks to a passer-by) Pardon me, sir, does this road lead to the museum?

I am sorry, sir, I don't know. I am a stranger here myself (Another gentleman C hears it B:

and stops)

Yes, keep straight to this way for over a mile and a half until you come to Chowk C:

Azadi, and turn to the left. It is a good way.

A: How far, do you think?

Over two miles, I should say. I'd take a bus, if I were you. C:

A: What number or route please.

C: Take number, 117, when you come to Chowk Azadi. That will take you to the Museum.

A: Thanks.

Ali: What is the time?

It is nearly five minutes to eight by my watch. Fatimah:

Upon my word, we must hurry up, if you are to catch that train for Rawalpindi. Ali:

Fatimah: Why, when is it due out?

Ali: At a quarter past nine exactly.

Fatimah: Oh, never mind. We have plenty of time

I am not so sure of that. What on earth have you been doing? What time did you get up? Ali: Fatimah:

I woke up before half-past five Then I performed ablution and offered my morning prayer. Now breakfast is ready. Don't look at me like that.

For Heaven's sake, get ready! We have no time to waste. Time flies, you know. Ali:

(The father is about to set up the tape-recorder. He calls aloud Yasser, Anne.) Come over here.

Hurry up! They show up in a minute)

You are going to hear a dialogue on tape now. Father:

Yasser: Father what is it about?

Well see this picture, (There is a picture of a tailor and a customer. Father switches on Father: the tape-recorder. They listen with attention).

Tailor: Good morning, Sir, what can I do for you?

Customer: I should like to be measured for a suit. With pleasure, Sir, kindly step this way. Tailor: What style and shade would you prefer?

Customer: I want an ordinary suit made of brown tweed. How much would the stitching cost?

I could make you a suit for Rs.5000/- It is quite reasonable, sir Tailor:

Customer: That's right.

Could you manage to call in sometime next week for the try? Tailor:

Customer: Yes, just give me a ring. Here is my card.

Very good sir Good morning. (father takes out the plug and talks to his kids). Tailor:

What do you say to that, kids? Father:

Yasser: Very interesting, Dad.

Father I'll hear it again and then we practice. Yasser will act out as the tailor, and I shall Anne: be the customer.

We see a kind of milk in tins. It is powdered milk. All the water in this milk has evaporated. When fresh milk stays in a dish for a little time, the thick part of the milk comes to the top. It is the cream of the milk. From this cream people make butter. If milk with the cream on it is made into powder, it is called Full Cream Milk Powder. When something floating is taken off the top of a liquid we say it is skimmed. When the cream is skimmed from the milk, the thin milk that stays is called "Skim Milk". Skim milk is a good milk but it has no fat in it. It is not good for very young babies.

ACTIVE AND PASSIVE VOICE

Voice is that form of the transitive verb that shows whether the subject acts or is acted upon. There are two voices in the English language: Active voice and Passive voice.

Active Voice:

When the subject of a verb is represented as acting, the verb is said to be in the active voice.

Khurshid (subject) helps Naushaba (object) 1.

The driver (subject) opened the door of the car (object). 2.

The boy (subject) makes the picture (object). 3.

Passive Voice:

When the subject of the verb is represented as acted upon, the verb is said to be in the passive voice.

1. Naushaba is helped by Khurshid.

The door of the car was opened by the driver. 2.

The picture is made by the boy. 3.

We see that the following changes take place when a sentence is changed from the active into passive voice.

The subject becomes the object and the object becomes the subject

The principal verb is changed into the past participle (if it is not already in that form) ii) and is preceded by some form of the verb be.

The preposition by is placed before the object. iii)

Following is a distrof the sentences (in various tenses) changed from the active into the passive Roice.

LESSON No 5 PAST INDEFINITE TENSE

He went to school.

You solved the question. 2.

تم نے سوال حل کیا۔

I bought a camera. 3.

4. We crossed the river.

5. They stopped the car.

It is clear that all the actions mentioned in these sentences took place sometimes in the past. But it is not clear whether they took place in the distant past or in the near past and that is why it is called indefinite. In other words we are not definite of the exact time when the action actually took place. In short, this tense can be used for any action whether relation to long past or near past. For translating such sentences we use only the second form of the verb. Here are some examples:

1.	We boarded the train.
2.	They gave us a gift.	م گاڑی میں سوار ہوئے۔
3.	Hamid won a prize.	انہوں نے ہم کوتھند یا۔
