Patriotism

حُب الوطنی

1. Patriotism means love for the motherland or devotion to one's country. A patriot loves his country and is willing to sacrifice when the need arises. The word patriot comes from the Latin word 'patriota' which means countryman. It is considered a commendable quality.	1- حُب الوطنی سے مراد مادر وطن یا اپنے وطن سے عقیدت ہے۔ ایک مُحب وطن اپنے وطن سے محبت کرتا ہے اور ضرورت پڑنے پر قربانی کے لیے تیار (رضامند) رہتا ہے۔ لفظ پیٹری اوٹ "لاطینی لفظ پیٹری اوٹا سے نکلا ہے جس کا مطلب ہم وطن ہے یہ ایک قابل ستائش خوبی سمجھا جاتا ہے۔
2. Patriotism gives people the strength and courage to safeguard the interests of the country and nation. For a patriot, the sovereignty, integrity, and honour of the country are of supreme values on which no compromise can be made. Patriots render great sacrifice for the preservation and protection of these values.	2- حُب وطن لوگوں کو ملک و قوم کے مفادات کی حفاظت کرنے کیلئے طاقت اور ہمت دیتی ہے۔ ایک مُحب وطن کیلئے ملک کی خود مختاری، سالمیت اور عزت و ناموس وہ اعلیٰ اقدار ہیں جن پر کوئی سمجھوتہ نہیں کیا جاسکتا۔ مُحب وطن افراد ان اقدار کی حفاظت اور تحفظ کیلئے قربانی پیش کرتے ہیں۔
3. Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah was a nation builder and great patriot. He wanted to protect the values, culture, and traditions of the Muslims of the subcontinent. He gave the Muslims a sense of identity by securing a separate homeland for them. He said: "We must develop a sense of patriotism which galvanizes us all into one united and strong nation."	3- قائد اعظم محمد علی جناح قوم کے ایک معمار اور عظیم مُحب وطن تھے۔ آپ برصغیر کے مسلمانوں کی اقدار، ثقافت اور روایات کی حفاظت کرنا چاہتے تھے۔ آپ نے ایک علیحدہ وطن حاصل کر کے مسلمانوں کو احساس تشخص دیا۔ آپ نے فرمایا: ہمیں حُب الوطنی کا احساس پیدا کرنا چاہیے جو ہم سب کو ایک متحد اور مضبوط قوم کے بندھن میں باندھتا ہے۔
4. The spirit of patriotism makes us stay alert in case of foreign invasion. In the history of Pakistan, there are many instances when people laid down their lives for the defence of the country. In the wars of 1965, 1971, and the Kargil War 1999, many brave soldiers laid their lives in an attempt to protect the homeland. Naik Saif Ali Janjua Shaheed (awarded Hilal-e-Kashmir- an equivalent to Nishan-e-Haider), Captain Muhammad Sarwar Shaheed, Major Tufail Muhammad Shaheed, Major Raja Aziz Bhatti Shaheed, Pilot Officer Rashid Minhas Shaheed, Major Shabbir Sharif Shaheed, Sowar Muhammad Hussain Shaheed, Major	4- جذبہ حُب وطن ہمیں غیر ملکی حملے کے پیش نظر چوکنا رکھتا ہے۔ تاریخ پاکستان میں ایسی بہت سی مثالیں ہیں جب لوگوں نے وطن کے دفاع کی خاطر اپنی جانیں قربان کر دیں۔ 1965، 1971 اور کارگل 1999 کی جنگوں میں بہت سے بہادور سپاہیوں نے وطن کی حفاظت کی کوشش میں اپنی جانیں قربان کیں۔ نائیک سیف علی جنجوعہ شہید (ہلال کشمیر سے نوازا گیا)، نشان حیدر کے مساوی ایک اعزاز) کپتان محمد سرور شہید، میجر طفیل محمد شہید، میجر عزیز بھٹی شہید، پائلٹ آفیسر راشد منہاس شہید، میجر شبیر شریف شہید، سوار محمد حسین شہید، میجر محمد اکرم شہید، لانس نائیک محمد

Muhammad Akram Shaheed, Lance Naik Muhammad Mahfuz Shaheed, Havildar Lalak Jan Shaheed, Captain Karnal Sher Khan Shaheed - all embraced martyrdom while fighting bravely for their motherland. All of them were awarded Nishan-e-Haider, the highest military award given to great patriots who laid down their lives for the country.

محفوظ شہید، حوالدار لالک جان شہید، کپتان کرنل شہر خان شہید، سب نے مادر وطن کے لئے بہادری سے لڑتے ہوئے جام شہادت نوش فرمایا۔ ان سب کو نشان حیدر عطا کیا گیا جو کہ سب سے بڑا فوجی اعزاز ہے یہ ان عظیم محب وطن افراد کو دیا جاتا ہے جنہوں نے اپنے ملک کے لیے جانیں قربان کیں۔

5. Patriotism, therefore, is not just a feeling rather it is a live spirit that continuously inspires and guides a nation. In the words of S. W. Scott, a man devoid of patriotic spirit, is like the one who: "Breathes there the man, with soul so dead, Who never to himself hath said, This is my own, my native land!"

5. اس لیے حب وطن محض ایک احساس نہیں ہے، بلکہ یہ ایک زندہ جذبہ ہے جو ایک قوم کو مسلسل تحریک اور رہنمائی دیتا ہے۔ ایس ڈبلیو سکاٹ کہتا ہے کہ حب وطن کے جذبے سے محروم شخص ایک ایسے شخص کی مانند ہے: "جو سانس تو لیتا ہے لیکن اس کی روح مردہ ہوتی ہے۔ جس نے کبھی اپنے آپ سے نہیں کہا، یہ میری اپنی، میری آبائی سرزمین ہے۔"

Exercise

Reading and Critical Thinking

A. Answer the following questions:

- How do you personally define patriotism? Can you provide an example from your own life or community that illustrates your definition?

Ans: Personal Definition of Patriotism

Patriotism means a deep feeling of love and loyalty for one's country. It is shown through good actions that help the country. For example, people in my community come together during disasters like earth quakes and floods to help those in need. I have witnessed such passion of patriotism in the soldiers of Pak Army while fighting bravely against terrorism.

2. Why do you think Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah's efforts were crucial in securing a separate homeland for the Muslims? 09602002

Ans: Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah's Efforts

I think Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah's efforts were crucial in securing a separate homeland for the Muslims because his efforts gave Muslims a separate homeland to be able to follow their religion and culture. Moreover, he developed a sense of patriotism which galvanizes us all into one united and strong nation.

3. Why do you think the soldiers mentioned in the text, are considered heroes? What qualities do they show? 09602003

Ans: Why the Soldiers are Considered Heroes

I think soldiers mentioned in the text are considered heroes because of their bravery and spirit of sacrifice to protect their homeland. In addition, they sacrifice their lives and stay loyal to their homeland.

4. How can the spirit of patriotism be maintained and fostered in today's society, where many people are more connected globally than locally? Provide examples of modern acts of patriotism. 09602004

Ans: Fostering Patriotism in a Globalized Society

The spirit of patriotism can be maintained and fostered in a globalized society by showing great respect for one's culture, traditions and countrymen. One can show patriotism especially during crises and natural disasters by helping the suffering people.

5. The text includes a quote from S.W. Scott about patriotic spirit. What do you think S.W. Scott means by "a man devoid of patriotic spirit"? Do you agree or disagree with this perspective? Why? 09602005

Ans: S.W. Scott's Perspective

According to S.W. Scott the people who don't love their country are shallow without souls. I agree to this perspective because loving one's country galvanizes its people into one united and strong nation.

6. How can schools teach students about patriotism? Why is it important for students to learn about it? 09602006

Ans: Teaching Patriotism in Schools

Schools can teach patriotism by developing the spirit of patriotism in the students. This can be achieved by developing awareness in the students about their heroes and their achievements. Speech competitions, National song competitions and Kalam e Iqbal Competitions can help achieve the desired goal.

7. Can you think of a small act of patriotism that someone could do every day? How does this help the country? 09602007

Ans: Small Acts of Patriotism

Abiding by the law and fulfilling the duties as a responsible citizen show the acts of patriotism. Moreover, keeping public places clean can help the country to a great extent.

8. What did you learn about patriotism from this text? 09602008

Ans: Learning from the Text

I learnt that patriotism is a commendable quality. It gives people the strength and courage to safeguard the interest of the country and nation. Moreover, it teaches us that a man devoid of patriotic spirit is like a shallow body without soul.

B. Write a diary entry about your day, using at least five different tenses.

My dear Diary,

Today was overall an excellent day. Because all is well that ends well. It was Sunday. And I woke up earlier than my routine this morning. It was only because of my back pain. Though I had taken medicine at night, I was not feeling well. I somehow managed to offer my Fajar Salat. After that I miraculously felt relieved as my pain just vanished. Then I went in a garden near my house. The fresh air energized me. I was feeling good.

I came back home where my mother was waiting for me at breakfast. 'We have been waiting for you for half an hour,' said my father. I took my breakfast, rested a bit and then started preparing for my test. During preparation, I felt my skills had improved because of my daily routine of preparation. I usually remember my teacher saying to me, 'Practice makes a man perfect.'

In the evening, a few friends came to visit me. We enjoyed our favourite T.V show (Star World). In this show, new discoveries in space are shown. After the dinner, my friends went back to their homes. It was time to sleep now. Before sleeping, it is my daily routine to remember what mistakes I have committed during the day. It gives me an opportunity to amend myself. Then I try to find out if there are some good deeds that I have done during the day. While thinking about these, I usually sleep. That was my day.
Goodnight!

An infinitive is the base form of a verb preceded by 'to'.

Uses of Infinitives

- As the subject of a sentence

Example: To err is human.

- As the object of a verb

Example: He wants to learn French.

- After adjectives

Example: She is eager to start.

- To express purpose

Example: I went to the store to buy milk.

Gerund vs Infinitive

There are certain verbs in English that can be followed by either a gerund or an infinitive, but choosing one over the other can change the meaning of the sentence.

Here are some common examples and explanations:

1. Remember

- Gerund (remember + -ing): Refers to remembering something that has already happened.

Example: I remember meeting him last year. (You met him last year, and now you recall that event.)

- Infinitive (remember + to + verb): Refers to remembering to do something in the future.

Example: Remember to meet him tomorrow. (You need to remember to do this future action.)

2. Stop

- Gerund (stop + -ing): Refers to ceasing an activity.

Example: She stopped smoking. (She quit the habit of smoking.)

- Infinitive (stop + to + verb): Refers to pausing an activity in order to do something else.

Example: She stopped to smoke. (She paused what she was doing to have a smoke.)

3. Try

- Gerund (try + -ing): Refers to experimenting with something to see if it solves a problem or has a desired effect.

Example: Try restarting your computer. (Experiment with restarting to see if it fixes the problem.)

- Infinitive (try + to + verb): Refers to making an effort to do something difficult.

Example: "I will try to finish my work on time." (You make an effort to finish your work on time.)

4. Forget

- Gerund (forget + -ing): Refers to forgetting that something happened in the past.

Example: "I'll never forget meeting you." (You remember the occasion of meeting.)

- Infinitive (forget + to + verb): Refers to forgetting to do something in the future.

Example: "Don't forget to lock the door." (You need to remember to do this action.)

5. Regret

- Gerund (regret + -ing): Refers to feeling sorry about something that has already happened.

Example: "I regret telling her the truth." (You feel sorry for having told her.)

- Infinitive (regret + to + verb): Refers to being sorry about something you are going to say or do.

Example: "We regret to inform you that your application was unsuccessful." (You are sorry to tell them now.)

6. Go on

- Gerund (go on + -ing): Refers to continuing the same activity.

Example: "He went on talking." (He continued to talk.)

- Infinitive (go on + to + verb): Refers to moving on to a different activity.

Example: "After the introduction, she went on to explain the main topic." (She moved to the next part of her talk.)

Participles are the verb forms used as adjectives. There are two kinds of participles: (ending in -ing) and participles (usually ending in -ed or -en).

Uses of Present Participles

1. As an adjective:

Example: The running water was cold. (Describes the water.)

2. To form continuous (progressive) tenses:

Example: They were laughing. (Present continuous tense.)

3. In participial phrases:

Example: Running down the street, he met an old friend. (Describes the subject of the main clause.)

Example

- The crying baby woke everyone up.
- They were laughing at the joke.

Uses of Past Participles

1. As an adjective

Example: The broken vase was expensive. (Describes the vase.)

2. To form perfect tenses

Example: She has finished her homework. (Present perfect tense.)

3. To form the passive voice

Example: The cake was eaten by the children. (Passive voice.)

4. In participial phrases

Example: Shocked by the news, she couldn't speak. (Describes the subject of the main clause.)

Example Sentences

- The painted door looks great.
- They had already left when I arrived.

1. Present Participle as an Adjective

Example: The exciting movie pleased us much. Here, "exciting" describes the noun "movie."

2. Past Participle as an Adjective

Example: The exhausted runner sat down to rest. Here, "exhausted" describes the noun "runner."

3. Participles in Verb Tenses

- Present Continuous: They are watching a movie.
- Past Continuous: They were watching a movie.
- Present Perfect: They have watched the movie.
- Past Perfect: They had watched the movie.

4. Participial Phrases

• Present Participle Phrase

Example: Seeing the rain, we decided to stay indoors.

- "Seeing the rain" provides additional information about why "we decided to stay indoors."

• Past Participle Phrase

Example: "Surprised by the sudden noise, she jumped."

- "Surprised by the sudden noise" provides additional information about why "she jumped."

D. Read the following sentences.

Writing Skills

- Brainstorm all the possible ideas and points that come to your mind when you think about "My Service to Society".

A. Write a well-structured paragraph on "My Service to Society".

Ans. "My Service to Society" has always been a fundamental value that motivates me to contribute meaningfully to the community around me. I believe that small acts of kindness and helping others can have a significant, lasting impact on society. Over the years, I have actively participated in community service projects, such as organizing charity drives, volunteering at local shelters, and providing tutoring for underprivileged children. Through these activities, I've learned not only to give back but also to understand the diverse challenges faced by different people in my community. My service to society is rooted in the idea of collective well-being, and I strive to foster a sense of unity and empathy by inspiring others to engage in similar endeavors. Ultimately, I believe that when we work together to uplift others, we create a stronger, more compassionate society for everyone.

B. Write an informative/ explanatory essay on the topic "I Love Pakistan".

Ans. Pakistan is my beloved country. It is a country that holds a special place in my heart, filled with rich history, vibrant culture, and a sense of unity among its people. From the soaring peaks of the Himalayas in the north to the vast deserts and bustling cities in the south, the country's natural beauty is unparalleled. The historical landmarks such as the ancient Mohenjo-Daro, the awe-inspiring Badshahi Mosque, and the majestic Lahore Fort remind us of the country's deep cultural and architectural heritage. The land is not only geographically diverse, but it is also home to a wide variety of traditions, languages, and cuisines, each contributing to the unique identity of Pakistan.

What makes Pakistan even more special is the resilience and spirit of its people.

Pakistanis are known for their warmth, hospitality, and unwavering love for their country. In times of hardship, the people come together, showing an incredible sense of community and strength. Whether it's celebrating national events, such as Pakistan Day on March 23rd or enjoying the joyous atmosphere of Eid, the sense of patriotism is always evident. From the thriving street markets of Karachi to the peaceful valleys of Swat, Pakistanis remain dedicated to preserving their traditions while working toward a brighter future for their nation.

Pakistan is also a land of endless possibilities, with its rapidly growing economy, dynamic industries, and young, vibrant population. The country has made significant strides in various fields such as technology, sports, and education, proving that it has a bright future ahead. Despite facing challenges, Pakistan continues to evolve, and its people remain hopeful and optimistic. I love Pakistan not only for its beauty and history but also for its richness in terms of minerals, etc. I am proud of being a part of this beloved country.

Long live Pakistan!
